

Number of Lecturers & Researchers

In total, WCC ATC Binalonan employs 89 full-time faculty members. However, not all are directly involved in research activities, as participation depends on specific qualifications and criteria outlined in the institution’s research policy. Each academic department designates at least one faculty researcher annually to lead and facilitate research initiatives within their field. Overall, there are 18 designated researchers across all departments, reflecting the institution’s structured and strategic approach to promoting a culture of research and innovation.

